

New Tramway Support Lends Hope for Realization

State C of C, Area Groups Aid Project

Local Residents Urged to Write Representatives

New support for the Mt. San Jacinto — Palm Springs Aerial Tramway by the State Chamber of Commerce yesterday in San Francisco, may lead to the realization of construction of the $13,000,000 project.

The motion before the State Chamber was made by Joseph R. Knowland, chairman of the California State Park and Recreation Committee, the committee that late last year refused a new contract to the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority for the use of the land in the San Jacinto State Park.

ORGANIZATIONS from throughout the state and locally, have issued resolutions backing the building of the Tramway, and the action yesterday follows closely similar action taken by the California State Hotel Association at its convention in Santa Barbara. All the organizations are asking for the "death of Assembly Bill 1361" which would repeal the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority Act.

Earl Coffman, president of the Authority, and Henry Lockwood, the authority's attorney, were both in San Francisco yesterday to talk with the committees.

ORGANIZATIONS AND individuals who want to back the Tramway, are asked to appeal to their state senators and assemblymen, but not to specific legislative committees.

The Tramway Authority project was started 11 years ago, and nine of those years since were spent in acquiring rights-of-way from the state, federal government and private interests. A poor bond market, despite a favorable economic report stressing the feasibility of the project, has prevented the sale of bonds to finance the construction.

Bonanza Gets Recommendation To Service Village

Bonanza Airlines has won the initial round in the battle among airline companies to service Palm Springs, with Examiner James S. Keith of the Civil Aeronautics Board recommending that Bonanza be permitted to use the Village as a "joint intermediate" stop along with Indian, on a transcontinental airline feeder service connecting with Phoenix.

Keith pointed out that according to Bonanza, this would involve the addition of only six air miles on each of its flights serving Palm Springs, under year-round service. Bonanza just last week met with city officials and civic officials here, urging renewed support of its application. At that time William J. Mitchell, Bonanza vice president in charge of traffic and sales, outlined a program calling for two or more daily flights through Palm Springs, connecting with the transcontinental air center of Phoenix.

150 Arrive for Los Compadres Outing

The biggest and most successful equestrian outing got under way in Palm Springs today, with some 150 out-of-town guests arriving here for the annual Los Compadres Guest Ride.

Trailers and tents, bedrolls and sleeping-bags were put out under desert trees and people from all over Southern California started a weekend of fun.

MANY ARRIVED last night, and found that Los Compadres members had cleared off a huge area and set the makings of a bonfire in the center, ringed by logs and railroad ties. As night-time came on, the dinner and dancing over, western clad groups moved out to the fire in the desert to sing songs and chat.

In the morning, while more persons were checking in, the "come-sonners" were riding out into the desert and canyons near Los Compadres Clubhouse.

AT NOON TODAY, following a big luncheon, there was more horseback riding and it will be

THE BIG QUESTION is, will the action by the California State Chamber of Commerce yesterday have a favorable effect on the State Park and Recreation Commission, which late last year refused to renew a contract with the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority. The Commission, in its

Polio Vaccine School Shots Start Tuesday

Starting next Tuesday 1,400 elementary school children will line up for Poliovaccine shots in the Palm Springs Unified School District.

Dr. Everett M. Stone, health officer for the County of Riverside, announced that all vaccinations will be given by local doctors who are contributing their services in administering the vaccine. They will be assisted by Mrs. Marjorie Caylor, county nurse at the Palm Springs Health Center, Miss Ann Donahue, school nurse for the school district, and Mrs. Ted Griffith and Mrs. R. A. Laurye, registered nurses.

On Tuesday, March 12, pupils from Cahulla, Cathedral City and Cielo Vista Schools will receive their vaccinations at Cielo Vista school, and pupils of Frances Stevens and Katherine Finchy will be vaccinated at the Frances Stevens school.

On Wednesday, March 13, the pupils of Desert Hot Springs, Nellie N. Coffman and St. Theresa schools will be vaccinated at their respective schools.

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Considerable cloudiness today and early tonight with scattered showers from San Bernardino county northward. Decreasing cloudiness Sunday. Cooler today, high temperatures 60-73 in upper valleys, 73-83 in lower valleys. Yesterday's high, 90; low, 52.

Three Public Hearings Head 13 Desert Planning Items

Three public hearings head the list of 13 desert area matters scheduled for consideration at the Tuesday meeting of the Riverside County Planning Commission.

Hearings include request for a zoning variance to permit Jack Cunningham to build a junior amateur speedway for children's one-quarter midget racing cars on Highway 111 near the Highway 74 intersection.

OTHER HEARINGS involve a request for change of zone from R-1 to C-P in San Luis Rey area of Country Club Estates northeast of Ramon Road. This hearing was continued from Feb. 26. Planners will also hear application for a church in a Cathedral City R-1 zone.

Three variance applications scheduled for board consideration include a reduction in area of an R-1 one in Cathedral City, reduction of yard space in a Desert Hot Springs R-3 one and front yard reduction of a Tamarisk Park area R-1 zone.

RECORDS OF SURVEY from three desert subdivisions will be submitted, along with request for abandonment of Verbena Lane between Second and Third Street in Cathedral City.

Planners will also discuss a change of one request from W-3 to R-3 in Desert Hot Springs, request for additional time of one year for filing of a Del Sol Estates final map and definition of a farm labor camp.

Culinary Union Calls Strike at Racquet Club

More than 50 employees of Charlie Farrell's famed Racquet Club walked out on strike last night, leaving most of the guests to wait on themselves.

The strike was called by the Culinary and Bartenders Union, local 535, after discussions on signing a contract fell through.

Some 20 members of the union waited in front of the famed night spot until they were given word to start a picket line, and then set up a regulated line.

This makes the fourth place in Palm Springs to have a picket line, the others are El Mirador, The Desert Inn and The Springs. Union officials have been in the Village talking contracts with owners during the past several weeks.

The sheriff's request asks for space in the American Legion building, which also houses various other county offices.

Other desert matters on the agenda are the planning commission's Ordinance 419 for a setback on Rio Del Sol Road in Coachella Valley and a letter from the district attorney about the employment of a stenographic clerk in the Palm Springs office.

Israel Asks U.S. to Help In Gaining Suez Passage

Realtors Ask 25 Committee For Action

Propose 18-Hole Course Carry O'Donnell Name

By DON KLOTZBUCHER

Committee of 25 and members of the O'Donnell Golf Club today were asked by the Palm Springs Real Estate Board to take the lead in establishing an 18-hole municipal golf course in Palm Springs by agreeing to relinquish the nine-hole O'Donnell course for other needed city benefits.

A letter from Theresa Press, Realty Board president, said that no action would be required until the 18-hole course was assured, and that "the revered name of Mr. O'Donnell, and the Club, might be perpetuated through naming the new course the Palm Springs O'Donnell Golf Course."

IN A PROPOSAL last week, the Real Estate Board had asked the City to initiate whatever action possible to acquire the use of O'Donnell (it already owns the land but it is subject to a 99-year lease) for off-street parking, a 5,000 auditorium site, and a park or botanical garden.

Mrs. Press said that "there is no desire, or thought implied, that the opportunity to play golf be removed," and called for establishment of an 18-hole public course to "accommodate the increasing demand, and dire need, to satisfy the thousands of visiting golfers and materially help the economy of Palm Springs."

CITY COUNCIL, when notified of the proposal at a luncheon meeting with the city planning commission did not evince much interest in the matter, and no one objected when Mayor Florian Boyd said "file it."

No statement has been issued by the Committee of 25 or O'Donnell members, as to their stand in the matter, but it is very doubtful if they will show an enthusiastic manner in destroying what is now a semi-private club, with their own clubhouse on the grounds.

TERMS OF THE deed to the city and the lease to his friends, both made by O'Donnell, read that the city will not gain control of the property until the lease has expired or unless the lease is terminated by mutual agreement, or for non-payment of the $3,000 annual rental.

If this would ever happen, the city is then required to use the property for civic purposes, such as the Realtors propose.

SKINNAY ENNIS, top orchestra leader and singer, who has just returned from a triumphant 90-day tour of the East and South, has been named to play for the eighth annual Police Show and dance in the Palm Springs High School quadrangle on Saturday, April 13. Columnist Walter Winchell will be master of ceremonies.

Skinney Ennis Orchestra Signed for Police Show

Skinney Ennis and his celebrated orchestra has been signed to play for the eighth annual Police Show and dance to be held in the Palm Springs High School quadrangle Saturday, April 13, it was announced today by Sgt. Bob Ralph, president of the Police Benefit Association.

Seats will be provided for 4,000 persons and another over-flow crowd is expected, Ralph stated, predicting it will be the greatest show in the history of the annual event which is the largest outdoor gathering of the year excepting for the winter rodeo.

Columnist Walter Winchell, will fly from New York to emcee the show.

SKINNAY ENNIS, who has just returned from a triumphant 90-day tour of the East and South is delaying another eastern musical tour in order to come to Palm Springs, where he has appeared with his great musical aggregation many times. A star of numerous motion picture features and featurettes, Ennis was with the Bob Hope Show for eight years, the Fitch Bandwagon and the Abbott & Costello show.

Until a few months ago he was at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles for three years and also played long engagements at the St. Francis, the Ambassador, Mark Hopkins hotels, the Paramount theatre in New York and the Chicago theatre besides working on TV and radio.

BECAUSE OF HIS unique and exciting style of vocal delivery, Skinnay has been widely acclaimed throughout the United States and abroad. Like Fred Waring and Horace Heidt, he started his musical career in his hometown Boy Scout band tooting the bugle and hammering the drum.

Tickets for the show and dance will go on sale March 29. Proceeds are used for police training, juvenile programs, crime prevention programs, department welfare and an emergency loan fund, Ralph said.

Egypt Hints Israeli Ships To Be Barred

Forecasts New Trouble for Middle East

WASHINGTON. — Israel today sought United States support for use of the Suez Canal by Israeli ships.

Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban made the request to Acting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. Eban told newsmen Israeli regards "with anxiety" reports from Cairo that Egypt will continue to bar Israeli ships from the vital waterway.

EBAN SAID HE delivered a letter to Herter from Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir.

The letter, he said, expressed Israel's appreciation for the "very sustained study" by the United States of Israel's problems in recent weeks. He said the letter also "summarizes our positions, achievements and anxieties."

Asked to spell out Israel's "anxieties," Eban mentioned only reports from Egypt that Israeli ships will continue to be denied use of the canal.

ISRAEL, HE SAID, compared these reports with the "contrary" view held by the United States and Israel that its ships should be permitted to pass through the canal.

U. S. officials said Egypt's reported move to bar Israeli ships from the canal violates at least two U. N. Security Council actions.

U. S. OFFICIALS also were concerned about the Egyptian announcement that Egypt would permit ships through the canal only if tolls were paid to Egypt.

If the Egyptians bar Israeli vessels, officials said the action would violate

THE OCT. 13 adoption by the U. N. Security Council of six principles for operation of the canal. The first of these principles provides that "there shall be free and open transit through the canal without discrimination, overt and covert."

High-Speed Chase Ends in Crash, Arrest of Driver

A high-speed chase down North Palm Canyon Drive ended just this side of disaster for Michael Paulek, 26, early this morning. Pursued by Police Officer Richard Rajcher, Paulek screeched around the corner of Camino Norte, slammed into a parked car and careened into a second auto before he came to a halt, Rajcher reported.

Paulek, of 1447 North Palm Canyon Drive, escaped injury, but he faces drunk driving charges, payment of almost $2000 in damages to the parked autos and possible action by the state for alleged failure to carry liability insurance.

The unfortunate motorist was booked into city jail on the drunk driving charge.

Car Flattens Mail Box, Mail

American driving habits are strange, but impressive, to a transplanted Hollander like Hein J. Kouwenhoven, of 840 Avenida Caballeros.

Drive Started by Police Chief On 'Undesirable' Magazines

A drive against "undesirable" magazines which are reportedly being displayed on some newsstands in Palm Springs was activated this week by Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, on a report of a citizens committee.

Letters have been mailed to some 14 magazine vendors within the city asking them to "take such magazines off the display racks."

THE COMMITTEE, all parents, objected to the magazines because "they are not artistic and flaunt sex in an offensive manner and they publish material that is obscene and indecent."

Chief Kettmann said today that not all the magazines in question are displayed on all the stands and he complimented the vendors who have kept them off their stands.

"I don't want it to be construed that Palm Springs is being a prudish community," said the Chief, "but it must be done to protect the community."

WITH THE LETTERS that went out to vendors throughout the city, was a post card which the vendors were asked to fill in and return to the police department.

Just last month the district attorney of Suffolk County, New York, started a drive against the same type of magazines flooding that county, and the district attorney asked the county grand jury to act as a panel of judges to determine whether the "obscenity" label is justified.

KETTMMAN POINTED out that the letter from him was a request to the vendors, and not an order under violation of the law.

Distributors of the magazines have indicated their interest to cooperate and said they would not distribute any of the magazines that "are not wanted by the vendor."

Meiselman Offers Customized Homes in New Palm Lane Estates

Palm Springs now has customized homes.

The man responsible for it, builder Jack Meiselman and his exclusive sales agent, Realtor George Gannon, announced yesterday that an outstanding example of this type of home will be open for public inspection at 2247 East Amado Road starting this weekend.

IMAGINATIVELY AND tastefully furnished by H. J. Friedman, of Palm Canyon Decorators, the model home is part of the new 49-home development, Palm Lane Estates, which in the near future will bring Meiselman's homes-sold record to the 285 mark.

Set in the midst of scenic splendor in the heart of Palm Springs, Palm Lane offers buyers an authentic custom look.

According to Realtor Gannon, the formula of allowing the buyer to customize his own home by selecting his own plans, colors and design is destined to revolutionize Palm Springs' entire building picture.

IT HAS ENABLED Meiselman, declared Gannon, in many instances to set the moderate price of $22,500 for homes of outstanding quality, with only $5,000 down and small monthly payments.

All Meiselman homes are built with an eye to making it supremely functional, easy to take care of and ideally suited for indoor-outdoor living.

Three years of planning and research preceded the launching of this project. It affords the buyer a panorama of the majestic Mt. San Jacinto and desert vistas.

NO MATTER WHICH way the sewer bond issue goes, Palm Lane buyers will win. They'll be living in one of the few Palm Springs areas where sewers are already in and paid for.

All Palm Lane homes will be fenced and landscaped at no extra cost to the buyer.

The model home, of desert contemporary design, is refreshing in that it favors quiet and comfortable elegance instead of flashy gimmicks.

FROM THE BEAUTIFULLY landscaped front yard one steps through large double entrance doors into spaciousness suggestive of the desert itself. The high-ceiling entrance foyer is impressive with its white walls and black and white pattern asphalt tile floor. From here one looks across a large living room through sliding glass doors onto the expansive outdoor living area.

In the living-dining area the high ceilings again give the feeling of spaciousness. An attractive feature of the living room is a floor to ceiling fireplace of Roman brick with a raised hearth.

The master bedroom is especially appealing to the ladies, because it boasts a mirrored wall which enables lady to keep her hemline and hosiery seams straight. Here we find a huge double walk-in closet. The master bath opens into the pool area and has eye appealing fixtures and Vinylflex plastic tile.

THE GUEST BEDROOM has a large double wardrobe closet and private bath with shower. Here too the floor covering is Vinylflex plastic tile.

The convertible den also boasts a double wardrobe and, with the ample linen closet and walk-in closet off the foyer, the housewife is assured of ample closet and storage space.

Beyond the Roman brick divider wall in the dining area one immediately perceives the built-in look of the modern kitchen. The cabinets are ample and beautifully done in birch.

FIGHT FOR LIFE

The most determined of numerous efforts to prevent the building of the Mt. San Jacinto (passenger) Tramway gets under way at Sacramento this week. The reason why opponents are trying so hard this time is because the chances for success of the 15-year effort look good this year. Indeed, it was not until recently that the Tramway COULD be built. The thousand-and-one details necessary to plan and obtain rights-of-way for a great project like this were brought to the point only last year where the final step of offering revenue bonds could be undertaken.

Naturally, then, the minority group which would deny this scenic wonder to millions has gathered all its forces for an assault on the enabling act which the State Legislature passed in 1945. This legislation created the Mt. San Jacinto Tramway Authority which was authorized to build the giant lift with revenue bonds and turn it over to the State of California after the bonds are paid off. No state funds are provided—even for the preliminary work which has cost private firms and individuals over $300,000.

The bill which has been introduced to kill the Tramway Authority is known as Assembly Bill No. 1361. It would be an outrage for the Legislature to knock the props out from under this project on which so much voluntary time and money has been spent—just at the time when it has been brought to the stage of possible fulfillment.

Can't We Take a Look?

Opposition to the Tramway comes from a small but influential group of people with altruistic ideas: Save nature's wonders from the tourist mobs, rusty tin cans and trashy concessions. Good. We'll go along with that policy any old day. But the building of this proposed tramway would not do any such a thing. There is ample protection against it.

Destination of the lift would be in San Jacinto State Park. Under a contract with the State Park Department, the Authority has entered into a 35-year contract with the Park Board for the right to use a limited number of acres and that on only a very restricted basis. Development would be limited to facilities for the comfort of those who go up there for a thrilling trip and return that night. While the contract between the Authority and Park Board has expired, there is no reason why it should not be renewed. The Tramway couldn't be built if the protective arrangement was not in effect, anyway.

Thousands of acres along the heights of San Jacinto will remain untouched for those who are rugged enough to pack in. Other less hardy souls who would have to ride the tramway would really only have time to take a good look.

Residents Must Act Now

If the Tramway project is to be saved, supporters will have to urge the State Legislature to oppose repeal of the enabling act. Numerous organizations in this area—and several in Southern California—have gone on record as opposed to Assembly Bill 1361.

It should be kept in mind that this project would not cost the taxpayer a cent. It must be financed by private capital; otherwise it cannot be built. Just give them the chance—and see what happens.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Blakely of Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Senator William Blakely of Dallas was breaking wild horses at 15, and today, at 58, he is watching with some concern the stampede of untamed forces toward national self-destruction.

Mr. Blakely, a lawyer and businessman who rose from poverty by rugged individualism, finds a glaring inconsistency in the world role which America is attempting to fill and in the philosophy of governmental paternalism which some of his fellow-Senators are promoting.

"I'm not well-informed in history," says this dark-visaged builder of million-dollar businesses, like Braniff Airlines, "but isn't it axiomatic that a people can't perform great deeds in world society while their government is running their lives back home?"

THE SEATOR HOLDS his seat by gubernatorial appointment and will return to private life after the special Texas election next month. But his lean, keen presence in Washington has been making itself felt in his general association with other Democrats, the more so because some of these others have led the investigation of the American petroleum industry.

Senator Blakely is not in the oil business, but no Texas Senator can be disinterested in it. Not so strangely as it might superficially appear, Blakely has worked up a personal and professional admiration for the prime leader of the oil probe, Senator Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming, although their philosophies would hardly be in tune.

BUT THE LAWYER in Blakely has recognized a master at work when O'Mahoney, as was once said of Edmund Burke, winds into his subject like a great serpent. There is neither Right nor Left when a couple of strong-minded Westerners meet, even though their minds do not.

Actually the Texan is as strong against business monopoly as is the veteran trust-buster from Wyoming. The government has a duty to prevent and punish any conspiracy to restrain trade, but Blakely looks upon this duty as one which should give individualism every break.

He feels that many liberal Democrats, and he specifically exempts O'Mahoney, whose opinions he doesn't claim to know with any intimacy, translate their hatred of business monopoly into a fondness for government monopoly. Instead of freeing the individual for competition, the Social Democrats of Congress want to take responsibility for his welfare.

"BUT WHEN YOU give a man his housing," says Blakely, "it's only a matter of time when you tell him where he's to live. Government in this country has already bestowed a large gift upon the people in the form of welfare, but we have not yet begun to realize that the people must turn back in return. This return payment is very likely to be in the form of liberties."

One of the most flagrant monopolies in America says Blakely, is within the Labor movement. Under the closed shop provision of many contracts, a man must join a union and pay dues in freedom of citizens, to give the citizenry all power over the government. Many Americans carelessly accept our government as a "democracy." Actually it is a constitutional Republic. . . . Our Constitution protects rights of minorities which sheer democracy would permit to be taken away by majority vote. This is an extremely important feature of our constitutional republic.

Accustomed to Having It Around the House

THIS SIDE of The Sun
By Phat

This weather is a gay deceiver.
Still winter but I've got spring fever.

That is technically, it is still winter. Officially, spring won't be with us for 12 days.

YESTERDAY I wrote that Bruce Thomas, author and lecturer, is an enthusiastic Palm Springs resident. By that, I mean that he says that in all of his world journeys, and he has plenty of those to his credit, he has only seen one place which anywhere comes near to Palm Springs.

"But the Chamber of Commerce need not worry," he said, "The place I am referring to is 18 miles out of Durbin, South Africa, a little bit too far for a weekend jaunt and too far from your friends."

WELL, PALM SPRINGS may have everything and probably does but in one regard, we are under-privileged here.

Comes spring and we don't get that pleasant relief which goes with doffing the winter flannels and getting into cool shorts. Pastel shades instead of stark red.

But we don't have to take down the storm windows and put up the screens.

Besides, I haven't seen a suit of longies since BVDs were invented.

WELL, BENCHES are back in the news again. Comes a communication from Don R. Gow on the subject. He says there are too few benches on the Drive and they are not too attractive.

"They are serviceable," he wrote, "but there is something about them that doesn't have the Palm Springs look."

Gow's idea to remedy the situation is:

"Why not take certain Palm Trees along the Drive and have circular benches placed around their bases? The benches would not have to be too large, just large enough for a person to sit on and enjoy a rest of the sunshine."

GOW WROTE his original suggestion to Jimmy Cooper of the Chamber of Commerce who referred him to me as the original bench booster here.

Mr. Gow asked me for my reaction to the suggestion. I think it is a good idea. Only we would have to figure out some way to irrigate the palms so that the people wouldn't get their, er, feet wet.

But I'm for it. I think sitting lazy in the sun is a lot of fun. And a pleasant form of relaxation. We need more benches.

Isn't there an old song, circa 1917 or thereabouts, "Beneath the Sheltering Palms?"

Harking back a few weeks to February 22 and looking forward to April 15, I like this comment by Jack Herbert:

"It may be true that George Washington never told a lie, but there were no income tax forms in his day."

AND I ALSO like this one by Hal Chadwick: "Judging from the names of perfumes, virtue doesn't make scents."

INEZ ROBB:

Only Love After April 15

"I can't give you anything but love, baby . . ."

And I'll gladly tell you why, baby, in one short sentence: Because I'm giving everything else to Uncle Sam. With him, it's either, or! Either give, or go to the jailhouse.

Come April 15, baby, I'll be picked as clean as a Sunday chicken on the way to the oven. The melancholy days have come.

The saddest of the year.

When I'm as broke as any bum,

And so are you, my dear.

SO, BABY, ON April 16, that money you and I made during 1956 by dint of much blood, toil, tears and sweat, by getting up a little earlier and working a little later, by hawking the competition and putting a fire under the home office: that money that seemed a pretty personal project to you and me will be transmuted once and for all into an impersonal prize package known as public money.

That's where the boom is lowered, baby, by the government. Because in essence and in practice, public money is nobody's money, and that is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Repeat, public money is nobody's money, to be approached by the public official not with a conscience but a shovel.

AND THAT, BABY, if you are interested in economics or government spending, is how $72,000,000,000 budgets are born.

Tax money is a prize package contributed by a big, vague, faceless public, a shadow with no substance. An elected official who would lean over backward to guard his own money—or yours or mine, if it were entrusted to him individually—regards public money contributed by you and me as a cow does clover.

Public money is just a great, big, beautiful hunk of coin toward which few persons in government, whether on the village, county, state or Federal level, feel the slightest moral responsibility.

EARL WILSON:

The Man Nobody Raps

NEW YORK—Charles Boyer's the man nobody raps. Now that he's one of our biggest TV stars, an increasing number of Americans are squealing—in surprise—"Isn't he nice?"

"What astonishes me about you," I mentioned the other day as "Zharish" sat with his glasses on and his toupee off in his place at the Pierre, "is that you made movie love to Jean Harlow and Greta Garbo—yet you're acting now with the young dolls, Sophia Loren and Brigitte Bardot."

"But I no longer make love to the young ones," he corrected me, fingering the thick script on the coffee table before him.

"ONE SHOULD GET away from romantic roles before they get away from him!" He spoke crisply, like a business man—which he is . . . a tycoon in the entertainment world whose job offers have increased as his hair has decreased.

"I'm very self-conscious about it. I've turned down a lot of love stories they've offered me. They were too corny," he shrugged.

But this—the thick script—was for a live TV show, "There Shall Be No Night," on Mar. 17. Katherine Cornell plays the Lynn Fontanne role.

"BUT SO MANY OF your leading ladies have died, retired or disappeared," I was thinking of the Garbos and the Harlows. He nodded. "I never played a juvenile on the French stage. At 24, I was playing opposite women of 35 or 38."

"When I go back to Paris now, 30 years later, and see some of those 'girls'—I'm shocked."

Skipping back to 1930, he mentioned his first American "talkie"—with Jean Harlow, "Red-Headed Woman."

"I knew about 10 words in English—I learned 10 more."

"THE PICTURE WAS so bad for me that Irving Thalberg promised that it wouldn't be shown in Paris."

"In 1933—24 years ago—I made 'Caravan' with Merle Oberon. I played a gypsy. I had to play a violin on every corner."

"I was going to give up America after that. But Walter Wagner signed me to do 'Private Worlds' with Claudette Colbert . . ."

"His French charm was officially discovered thereupon. 'Conquest' with Garbo came in 1937. 'It's too bad she retired.' He seemed sad. 'She really was wonderful and should not have let one bad picture disturb her. Most of us have had many bad pictures.'"

Then there was Ingrid Bergman.

He shook his head in his admiration. "A couple of years ago she spoke English when I saw her. When I next saw her she spoke flawless French—I was flabbergasted."

"Of course she speaks Italian. And all the Swedes speak fluent German. Five languages!"

Jane Powell's just been signed by Boyer and David Niven in their company, Dayton Productions, for a new fall TV series. "DAVID AND I will be abroad much of the time. We will shoot some of the scenes in Europe," he mentioned.

Summers he takes his family to Ischia, an island near Capri, but less chi-chi, though Hollywood's home still. He plans a new Broadway show, and he'll play a general in "Buccaneer" at Paramount.

"You see"—and he pointed a finger—"I'm not trying to be younger than I am."

"If they submit a script that I'd have done 20 years ago, I won't do it. I did 'Nana' with Martine Carol, and she walks on my face, but that's classic."

I couldn't help remembering that he himself had married a much younger bride.

"We've been married 23 years—23 years the last Valentine's Day—she's still much younger than I am . . . but," he added with a warming smile, "don't forget, I wasn't an old man when we got married!"

THE WEEK-END WINDUP . .

A Beverly Hills clothing show sent a cop after a young glamor gal who borrowed fancy duds for a photo layout, then "forgot" to return 'em . . . One famed entertainer lost a $500,000 TV deal because the sponsor wouldn't consider him after his story appeared in an expose mag.

Moss Hart, vacationing at the Concord, recalled that 30 years ago his Borscht Belt assistant was Dore Schary . . . Cafe owner Angel Lopez remembered he has an old contract with Martin and Lewis. Jerry said jokingly, "Let him sue—he'll collect!" . . . Chuck Posner of Miami's Hotel Algers, new pres of the Miami Beach Hotel Ass'n, will vacation—in California.

BUDDY HACKETT'S "Stanley" TV'er, shot up two Neilsen points the week before it was dropped . . . Host Arthur Nagdy of the Chardas signed the entry bond to bring in Hungarian singer Elizabeth Galley . . . Howard Hoyt's next production will be "Mad Anthony Wayne," a TV'er . . . Carroll Baker's unhappy over Warner Bros' ordering her to work March 12 without naming the film.

Nils T. Granlund said at the Hawaiian Room he's co-authoring Carl Brisson's biography; Brisson's son Fred will film it . . . One of the best-known jazz musicians of the '30s is a movie victim, his friends say sadly.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Victor Borge, whose autobiography is now running in the Sat. Eve. Post, says, "I look forward to it each week—I can't wait to hear what I have to say."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Les and Liz Carpenter saw this sign on a Washington restaurant: "Hunger removed while you wait."

Frank Parker kids his age at the Cotillion Room, calling himself "The Elvis Presley of World War I." Someone tells him, "I'm an archeology student, and teacher said you were an ancient sport." . . . That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Mickey Rooney's Negotiating

HOLLYWOOD—Mickey Rooney and CBS-TV are seriously fiddling with a half-hour live variety show format for next season, with Mickey emceeing and playing every musical instrument in the band. He used to do it in vaudeville. The idea has a good chance of becoming an actuality.

Eleanor Powell and CBS-TV talked plans for a religious program but the network decided that U.S. viewers aren't ready as yet to accept interdenominational religion on a national scale. When I asked Eleanor about it, she explained: "Sponsors run away from religion. They feel it's too touchy a subject for comfort."

"MUCH AS I HATE to admit it, I can understand their timidity. When I conducted 'Faith of Our Children' on a local basis here in Los Angeles I received a number of crank letters asking how I dared to have colored and white children in the same Sunday School classroom. Some even accused me of being a Communist and threatened to report me to the authorities! It's very disillusioning."

Art Linkletter and his producer, John Guedel, changed their mind again and "People Are Funny" will be back on NBC-TV next season after all . . . Jim Backus, the voice for those Mr. Magoo cartoons, collaborated with his wife, Henny, on a TV script titled "Do Magoo," which you'll be seeing soon if Jim can get clearance for the title from United Productions of American and Columbia Studios.

ELVIS PRESLEY escorted Rita Moreno to the Moulin Rouge at Sunset and Vine and the commotion kicked up by their presence was frightening to behold. No question about it, Elvis has caught the public's fancy. Bob Hope and NBC have "their heads together on a deal whereby the network will buy Rapid Robin's old radio tapes for use on daytime radio. The sale price doesn't amount to much, according to Bob, but he figures the tapes of his old radio shows will be good promotion for his new TV shows.

Ronald Reagan hits the personal appearance road this month—for the seventh time—to stir up interest in his "General Electric Theatre" teleseries.

FIVE-FOOT-NINE, 134-pound Irish McCallay, star of ABC-TV's "Sheena, Queen of the Jungle" series, hopes some day to quit swinging through the trees in favor of comedy roles. "Why," I asked, "when your series is doing so well?" "Because," said Irish, as she threw a big wink my way (and I wish I could throw a big wink her way), "I like being wacky!"

Joe E. Brown tells about the cannibal chief who snarled at his cook: "I thought I told you not to boil that missionary—couldn't you see he was a friar?"

TONY CURTIS WAS so enthralled—as was I!—with Part One of "The Defender," two-part play on "Studio One," that he immediately started negotiating for movie rights. The TVersion starred Ralph Bellamy. Tony wants it for his own independent producing company.

Groucho Marx asked a bunch of buddies in to help brother Zeppo celebrate his birthday. When the clock chimed 9 p.m., Zeppo rose from his chair and said, "Sorry, Groucho, but I gotta go." Snapped Groucho: "It's about time—I thought you'd NEVER leave!"

Overheard at the payroll window at Television City: "Naturally I spend more than you earn, dear. I've got so much confidence in you!"

Over 200 Attend Final Film Concert Of Great Artists; $1,500 is Raised

More than 200 Villagers experienced a thrilling new medium of the concert stage Thursday night as the world's greatest virtuosos paraded in a filmed appearance at the Jewish Community Center.

A marked quietude hushed the near-capacity audience for three solid hours in the second and last presentation of a concert film library earmarked for the Palm Springs school system.

FORGETTING THEY were viewing only filmed images, the audience delivered heavy applause, refusing to leave without an encore performance, reported Dr. Benjamin Goldberg, chairman of the Palm Springs Unified School District Music Appreciation Committee.

The committee has collected $1,500 for the purchase of concert films to be used in music classrooms throughout the school district.

Thursday night's program got under way with a 30-minute recital by the outstanding cellist, Gregor Platigorsky. He was followed by Trumpeter Rafael Mendes, who joined his two sons in a magnificent trumpet solo.

OTHER CONCERT stars included Jascha Heifitz and Dosier Connolly. The scheduled program ended with Dimitri Metropoulos conducting the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra. The distinguished conductor and the orchestra were first shown in rehearsal, and then revealed in full dress in concert at Carnegie Hall.

Clamor for still more of their favorite concerts, the audience insisted upon an encore and stayed almost another hour to watch singer Marian Anderson. "Everyone agreed that it was a wonderful program," Dr. Goldberg said. "The music was thrilling—every note was perfect."

Twelve Candidates Named For 10 Chamber Positions

Twelve candidates for membership on the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce board of directors were presented at the chamber's Town Hall dinner meeting this week.

The chamber also heard County Supervisor George Berkey discuss problems confronting an unincorporated community such as Cathedral City.

OF THE PROSPECTIVE board candidates, selected by a nomination committee headed by Paul Clark, 10 will be elected to the board at the chamber's March 26 meeting.

Candidates are: Claude Cobb, Herb Henry, Berton Lamb, L. C. Lewis, Orvil Zappe, Robert Irvine, Bob Hollister, Merle Hancock, Jack Hicks, John Down, Don Veitch and Robert Sherrill.

Additional candidates may still be recommended by chamber members.

IN DISCUSSING unincorporated communities, Supervisor Berkey explained the mechanics of the city government system adopted by Lakewood, a suburb of Long Beach.

Berkey explained that the voters elect a council which, in turn, elects a mayor. The council also contracts with Los Angeles County for all fire protection, police and public services, keeping taxes at a minimum by cancelling out expenses for salaries or public buildings.

Local Realtors Attend CREA Board Meeting

Members of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board are joining with nearly 500 members of the Board of Directors of the California Real Estate Association this weekend in Coronado, it was said today by Theresa Press, president of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board.

The general session will be presided over by J. Mortimer Clark of San Francisco, president of the association. "One of the most important events will be the legislative committee's 'Review Session,' under the chairmanship of Edward L. Callahan of San Marino, said Mrs. Press.

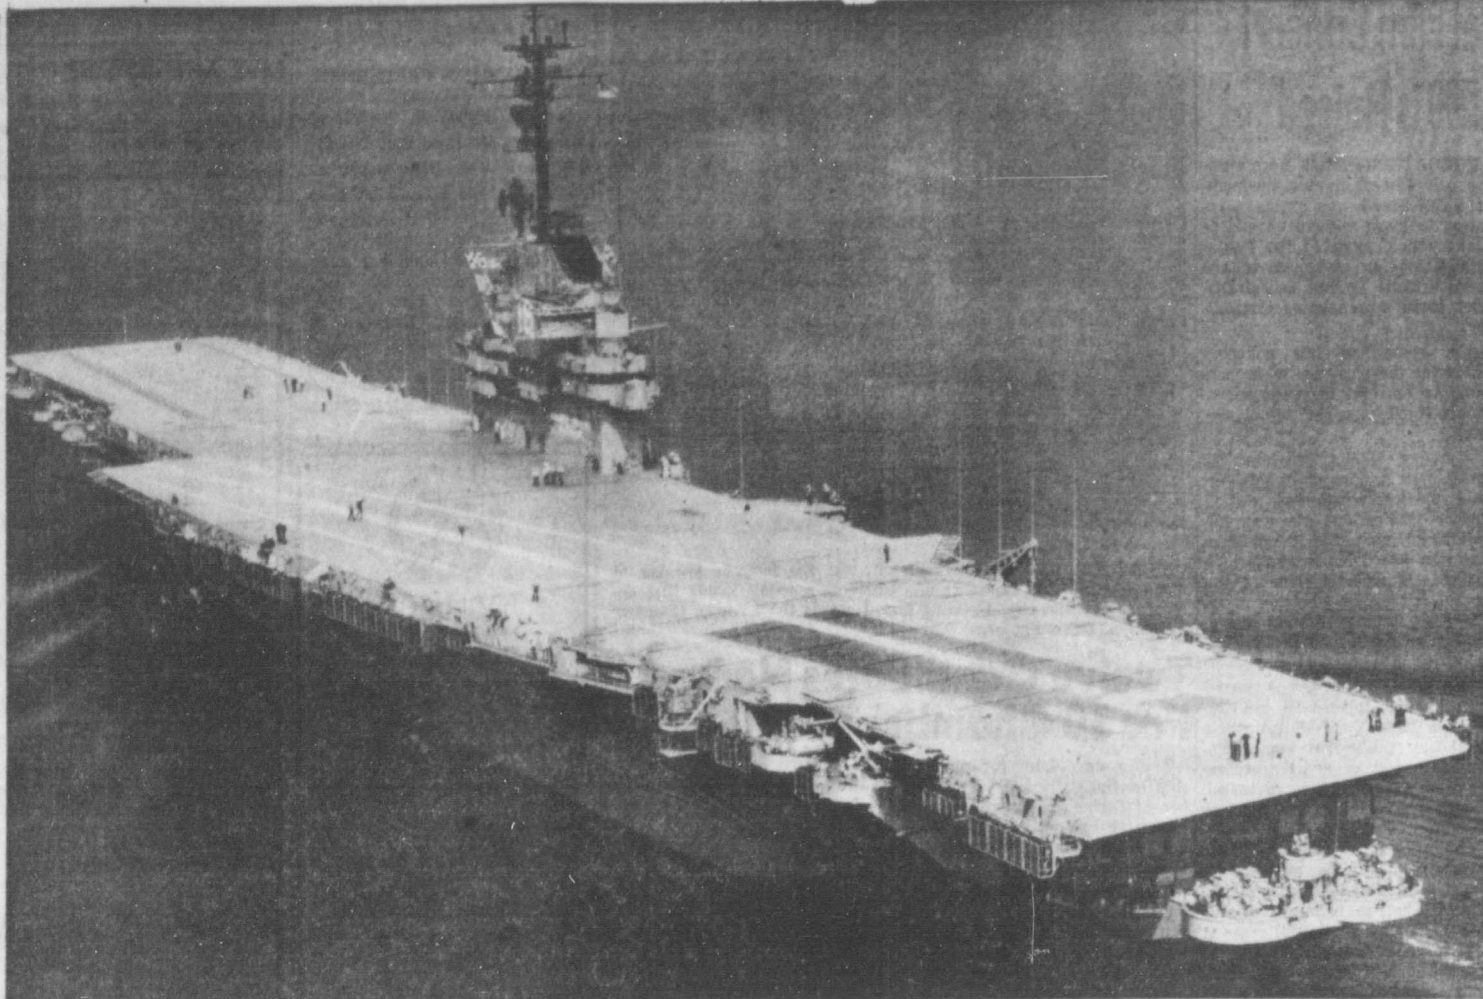

"AT THIS SESSION," she continued, "the Realtors will review the legislation introduced at the current session of the California Legislature and formulate the CREA recommendations to the Legislature."

Attending the Directors meeting from Palm Springs are the following members of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board:

MRS. MILDRED JACKSON, past chairman for the Women's District No. 14, CREA; Betty Luce, newly appointed chairman for the 14th District, replacing Mrs. Jackson; Muriel Fulton; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Jekyll; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. John Munholland; and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Dexter.

In addition to the business meetings, a number of recreational activities are planned, including a tour of the San Diego Harbor on a chartered boat, the Jai-Alai games in Tijuana, a golf tournament at the Tijuana Country Club, swimming and dancing at the Del Coronado Hotel.

Golden hamsters are among the most prolific of all mammals. Millions in captivity today are descended from a single litter of 12 found in a burrow near Aleppo, Syria, in 1930.

FIFTH U.S. WARSHIP of her historic name, the U.S.S. Lexington, giant and most modern aircraft carrier, will leave San Diego Sunday on a shake-down cruise after recommissioning, with five Villagers aboard as guests. They are George Gannon whose brother is commanding officer of the Lexington, Ward Risvold, Harold Hicks, Fred Ingram and Dan Dunlap.

Five Villagers to Leave Sunday on Five Day Tour Aboard Historic Carrier, Lexington

Five Palm Springs men will leave Sunday night on a tour, destination unknown, which is the privilege of few civilians. They will participate in a cruise of the U.S.S. Lexington, historic aircraft carrier, recently recommissioned and modernized at the Puget Sound Naval Yard, Bremerton, Wash.

The fortunate Villagers who will make the tour are George Gannon, whose brother, Capt. John W. Gannon, is commanding officer of the Lexington, Ward J. Risvold, Harold Hicks, Fred Ingram and Dan Dunlap.

THEY WILL BOARD the giant ship at San Diego. Destination is unknown but they will be at sea for five days.

The Lexington is the fifth in the line of historic United States warships bearing that name.

The first U.S.S. Lexington was a 16-ton brig commissioned in 1775 and named in commemoration of the Battle of Lexington, fought in that year. The second Lexington was a 18-gun 691-sloop-of-war commissioned in 1825. The third, an iron-clad side wheeler, went into action in 1860, carrying seven guns.

THE FOURTH was originally planned as a battle cruiser but was converted into an aircraft carrier and commissioned in 1927. The Lexington served in three engagements with the Japanese before she was sunk in the Battle of the Coral Sea on May 8, 1942.

Before going down her guns and planes sent one Japanese carrier to the bottom also many Japanese aircraft.

THE NEW LEXINGTON, the fifth of her name, was launched four months after her predecessor was sunk and was soon in action in the Pacific.

Choral Litany To Be Sung at St. Paul's Church

Choral Litany will be sung in procession at the 11 a.m. service tomorrow, the first Sunday in Lent at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church.

Following the Litany, a shortened form of morning prayer, with sermon by the rector, will complete the service.

The Litany is a collection of ancient medieval and reformation prayers, the first service to be translated into English for the use of the Church of England. Anciently, Litanies were sung in procession around the yards and are used today for times of special solemnity.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. tomorrow. The family service and church school will convene in the church at 8:15 a.m. The high school young people's group will meet at 7 p.m. in the rector's study.

Holy Communion is celebrated each Thursday at 10 a.m., this to continue until after Easter.

Rabbi Leon Rosenberg, spiritual leader of Temple Isaiah, Palm Springs, will be the guest speaker at the Guild Lenten Tea next Tuesday, March 12th.

Tramview Park

Shuffleboard continues in a neck and neck race, with dancing as the number one activity at Tramview.

In the Interpark Tournament, Tramview Shufflers won recent matches with Skyridge and Rancho, which places Tramview fourth in the league, although Sahara continues the undisputed leader with 10 victories and no defeats.

Locally, star winners in the men's league were Joe Rogers (twice), Herb Sealfield, Harry Wood, Glen Steever and Asa Warren.

BERTHA TAPPE, Anna Scott, Bessie Higgs, Edith Gregory, Irene Anderson and Afton Slate were the proud winners of "Champ" stars.

In the Sunday mixed tournaments, Hazel Reiser, Joe Rogers, Glen Steever, Ernie Higgs, Roy Hebert and Bob Smylie were the winners.

The annual Tramview Tournament to determine the champion players in the women's and men's league, will get under way March 18. The ladies will play the first week, terminating their tourney March 23 or 24. The men take off the following Monday and wind it up the 30 or 31 of March. The management has ordered suitable engraved trophies for the winners, and they will be on display in about a week.

JESSIE AND PINKY Trezona's daughter, and Nedra Hollister's sister, Ann Howell and her family are moving from Pennsylvania to California about March 11. Husband John will be in charge of a new West Coast office being opened in Rolled Alloys, Inc., of Detroit.

They will be living in the Los Angeles area, but until they find a home their children, Royanne, Jack, Mike and Terry, will be living with their relatives here, and will enter Cathedral City school.

CONGRATULATIONS TO newlyweds Pearl and Herman Hufstle. The Bill Fishers have a new Expando, Trailer the first such unit in Tramview. It is really something to see, and is as big as a house.

The Horizon Ladies Shuffleboard Team recently completed a home and home series with Tramview gals. They were purely social events and they claim they didn't even keep score. Delicious refreshments were served at both affairs. The Windblowers have blossomed out with a nice new Oldsmobile, and the Carl Eatons have a new Plymouth.

HARRY AND PHYLLIS Le Vantine completed their new Cathedral City apartments, and much to our regret, moved into one.

The T. A. Royleys purchased a 35 foot Kit and are now residing on Vista Drive. Floyd and Marie Bare have a new 27 foot Terry, delivered last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Camp and Frank Wilson, were last heard of from Monaco on their round-the-world cruise.

Ted and Pearl Gould will be leaving in April on a cruise to New Zealand—Mr. Gould's former home.

THE MARCH POTLUCK will be on Thursday, March 14, with ladies from Sunset and Tamarisk Streets in charge.

The April Potluck Dinner will be Thursday, the 11th, and will be in charge of the women residing on Vista Drive and in the Cabana section.

The annual Tramview Hobby Show is scheduled for Monday, March 11, from 2 to 7 p.m. Tramview's Hobby Show was outstanding last year, and it surely will be again this year under the capable direction of Florence Meadows.

Those winning ribbons were: Leona Bridges, Olive Brown, Olivia Clark, May Connell, Cecile Doe, Muriel Fletcher, Mabel Flockman, Stella Garlick, Florence Meadows, Walt Nabower, Mildred Ward, Doris Sprague, Esther Wood, Jane Yantis, Martha Yost, Ray Ward, Muriel Smith, all of the above in handicrafts.

Mary Carlson, the perennial winner of many ribbons in food entries received four first, three seconds and one third for various cookies, cakes and bread.

Pinky Trezona instructor in square dancing at Tramview, was honored at a surprise party Monday noon, following the square dance class, and was presented with two western shirts and a tie. Luncheon was served. The hosts were members of Monday and Tuesday classes.

De Luxe Park
The Community Chest Drive at De Luxe Tuesday evening, featuring a Box Social and "Deluxo," together with the many beautiful donations of the merchants of Cathedral City, netted $135.60 for the drive.

Contributing merchants were: Hoppy Nursery, Rupp's Hardware Store, Cathedral Market, Cathedral Drug Store, Desert Aire Dress Shop, Cathedral Hair-Dress Shop, Desert Outfit, R. Croon Jewelry Store, Merle Norman Beauty Shop, Cora's Dress Shop, Variety Store, Buick Garage, Trailer Coach Supply, Rip's Cafe, Texaco Service Station, Richfield Service Station, Whitney's Market, The Date Shop, Cathedral Cleaners, Food Box, Scott's Desert Wear, and Dorcas Beauty Shop.

MANY OF THE ladies in the Park baked cakes and pies which were auctioned off, and De Luxe contributed a seven pound ham. Many of the men donated their services in various capacities and helped at the "Deluxo" tables.

Jack Hyett was auctioneer, and credit goes to Medora and Jack Hyett for the planning and promoting the drive. Approximately 100 attended. Glee and Jimmie Kline and daughter Kim, were honor guests at a surprise Chinese dinner party Saturday evening in the Rainbow Room in Cathedral City, with 35 guests attending.

The table was lovely with sweet peas and pansies, and corsages of violets for the guests.

AMONG THOSE present were Nona and "Fuz" Ralph, Ethel and Lynis Nelson, Elvira and Dave Evans, Dell Ferris, Len Wilbur, Jessie and Emery Harnden, Doris and Fred Harnden, Ed and Inez Olerud, Gladys and Clyde Jones, Rella and Fred Vercoe, Bea and Ed Fautz, Ruth and "Chuck" Brisbin, Nellie and Frank Cromwell, Hazel and Clay Morrow, Butch and Jack Donohue, Dick Strandgard, Betty Gates, and Mae and Duke DuGas.

The Klines have been residents of De Luxe for many years, but are now occupying their beautiful home recently completed in Cathedral City.

BOB AND NELLIE Skiles' three-piece orchestra will furnish the music for the ballroom dancing Saturday night, March 9.

A St. Patrick's Potluck Dinner, with musical entertainment is on the agenda for Tuesday, March 12. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Black are again guests at De Luxe, and are welcomed by their many friends.

Blue Skies Village

Sunday, March 3, was a beautiful day on the desert, and a beautiful breakfast was planned, cooked, and served by the three "new chefs" at the "Waldorf Astoria of the Desert."

Chief Chef Oran McRae prepared and cooked the 500 light, delicious pancakes, Chef L.H. Strong cooked the sausages and bacon, and Chef Jack Hackett cooked the 15 dozen eggs (most of them "sunny side up").

MAITRE D' HOTEL Eddie Edmonstone was assisted by Lee Parkus, Will Moore and Roy Grayson. These dining room experts served the coffee, juices, and milk, and scientifically "spooned" the melted butter and syrup over the hotcakes of the guests.

Over 150 Blue Skies residents and their guests were served. Tables were attractively arranged at poolside and inside the clubhouse.

THE BLUE SKIES Club House was the scene of a Ladies Afternoon Tea, Helen Hayes, wife of Col. Richard Hayes, was hostess, Mrs. A. Lee Parkus and Mrs. James Tennant poured, and Mrs. Carl Olson and Mrs. Clarence Kent assisted their hostess with the preparations and the serving.

Miss Rosemary Heath sang "Love Me Tender," "Gonna Get Along Without Ya Now," and two 1957 Academy Award Nominees, "Que Sera, Sera" and "True Love." Miss Heath was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. L. H. Strong from Salt Lake City, Utah.

MRS. ELONA SEGRAVES recited "A Cowboy's Prayer" and "Down at Old Aunt Mary's" by James Whitcomb Riley. Among those attending were Mrs. Harold Cooper, Mrs. Jewell Higgins, Mrs. Oran McRae, Mrs. E. R. Brewer and other ladies of "Bing's Village."

The American Medical Association says only five per cent of us have dreams in technicolor.

Comedy Next Offering At Playhouse

"Dear Charles," comedy by Alan Melville, will be presented by Herb Rogers at his Palm Springs Playhouse, opening Tuesday evening, March 12 at 8:30 o'clock. The play will follow "An Inspector Calls," which closes its engagement on Sunday evening, March 10. Marrian Walters will play the leading role, which was originated on Broadway by Tallulah Bankhead. Other members in the cast will be Tim O'Connor, Sidney Breese, Michael Ferrall and Jack Clarke. Ferrall also will stage the production.

"Dear Charles" concerns a woman who has had three lovers and children by each of them. She has dreamed up a husband whom she identifies as "Charles" in order to create an aura of respectability. The situation becomes complicated, however, when two of her daughters wish to marry into staid families. The lady of dubious morals then rounds up her lovers and eventually finds the solution to the perplexing situation.

"Dear Charles" will be presented each evening through Sunday, March 17.

HOSTESS for the First Nighter dinner, which will be held at Hotel Oasis on Tuesday night, is Mrs. E. Stewart Williams, corresponding secretary for the Playhouse Guild, sponsoring organization. Reservations may be made by calling Guild headquarters at 6478. (Posepsil Photo).

Playhouse To Present 'Wizard'

On Saturday, March 16, at 2:30 p.m. the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild will present the Playhouse Players in "The Wizard of Oz." It has long been a hope of the Guild to bring a play to local children. Michael Ferrall will direct his entire professional cast in this all-time favorite, and Herb Rogers will produce the fantasy. Admission will be $1.00, with tickets to be sold only at the box-office before the matinee. An interesting proviso is that no adult will be admitted unless accompanied by several children.

Local parent-teacher organizations are joining the Guild in supporting this move to bring good theater to elementary and junior high age youngsters, by spreading information to their members. Matinee parties and neighborhood car pools are being arranged to help the young people go "Over the Rainbow" into the wonderful land of Oz, where man or child or beast may find his heart's desire.

Announcement of the coming play for children was made several weeks ago, and much interest had been shown by theater patrons who have learned to expect quality in all Playhouse productions. Leading roles are in rehearsal now, and the complete cast will be announced shortly. Costumes, an all important accessory in this play, have been ordered from Los Angeles.

Second tea of the series will be held at the home of Mrs. Sidney Niles at 823 Avenida de los Palos Verdes on Tuesday March 29, with Rev. Thomas Marshall, rector of St. Paul's Church in Pomona as speaker.

Concluding the series will be the tea held at the home of Mrs. Frank Camp at 776 Mission Road on Tuesday, April 9, when Rev. Kenneth Cary, rector of the Pacific Palisades Church, will be the speaker.

The time of all the teas is 2:30 p.m., following the business meeting of the Guild, which will be held at 1:30, with president Mrs. C. Ronald Ellis presiding. All parishioners and friends are invited to attend.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Lustrous fruit of the oyster . . . the pearl which women have dreamed about . . . and men have fought over . . . was the star of the show at Andrea of Palm Springs' Palm Canyon shop Thursday night . . .

The preview showing of specially designed jewelry . . . included fabulous ropes of pearls . . . rings, bracelets and brooches . . . and pearls paired with other precious stones . . . It was a Queen's Ransom and a treasure trove . . . which Andrea sought out and brought to Palm Springs from the far corners of the earth . . . The showing was an invitational affair . . . but the pearls will be on display for two weeks . . .

One necklace and bracelet that was attracting attention was a three strand affair . . . with detachable brooches of rubies and sapphires . . .

We were there early on our way to the Kemper party at the Racquet Club . . . but we saw Mrs. Charles Dant, Mrs. Austin McManus, Mrs. Sydney Schiff . . . the Bob Higgins, Bill Goodes, Vie and Bud Graves, the Percy Whitesides in the crowd . . .

A note from Blanche Andrews Markille from Japan . . . She'd arrived in Tokyo on the 23rd after two wonderful weeks in Honolulu . . . She writes "It's very beautiful here in the country . . . flowering trees popping out . . . and flower stalls bright and gay with pots of Spring flowers" . . . but, she'd been reading her way through a stock of Desert Suns that had accumulated . . . and she was missing the desert . . .

Flo and Wally Brunmark have sent out invitations for cocktails and dinner at their home, Varmeland . . . on the evening of April 13 . . .

Thunderbird is planning a St. Patrick's dinner dance . . . with Irish menu and Irish decorations . . . on Saturday night, March 16.

The J. Griesedecks of the St. Louis beer family . . . and the J. Maytags of the washing machine empire . . . and the Francis Gerlis of Deer Creek, Greenwich, Connecticut . . . are among recent arrivals at Thunderbird . . . and the Ernest Breches are back from a month in Detroit . . .

At Chi Chi the other night . . . catching Nat King Cole's show . . . was a group which included Bing Crosby and Inger Stevens, the Dick Snidemanns and Pete Pettito . . . Inger, a lovely blonde of the Grace Kelly type, is in Crosby's newest movie "Man on Fire" . . . and they have been a frequent two some in recent weeks . . .

Liberace, who spent a few quiet days here at his recently-acquired house, is in New Orleans this weekend . . . He's been reducing and has taken off enough weight . . . that he's having all his suits altered . . . He'll have a new show . . . when he opens at Chi Chi the last of this month . . . It will be the same one which he will take to the Palace in Manhattan . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindeman (publisher of Seattle Post Intelligencer) hosted a dinner party at the Ranch Club Thursday evening . . . Their guests were the Fred Hallidays, Judge and Mrs. Julian Hazard, the Franklin B. MacCarthys . . . Ward Risvolds, Judge and Mrs. John Burns of Boston, Mrs. Joe Hale (Joe's in New York) and Ray Shelby . . .

The Lindemanns, who are staying at the Desert Inn, will be here until March 15 . . .

Arabs Sweep 3-Way Practice Track Meet

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK —Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Mickey Mantle and Duke Snider, the major league home run kings, both are talking through their hats when they insist that they won't worry about trying to break Babe Ruth's record 60 homers this season but instead will try to fatten their averages.

You can bet your last paltry peso that if either one of them gets within striking distance he'll be swinging so hard he'll break his shoelaces.

It's no secret that hitters of this calibre can fatten their averages considerably by punching the ball. Willie Mays in 1954 had 34 homers at the All-Star break and, deciding to boost his .312 batting average after a confab with Leo Durocher, knocked only seven homers the rest of the season but won the batting crown with .345.

IT WAS ONLY AFTER his chances at Ruth's mark had gone down the drain last season that Mantle admittedly "quit swinging from the cellar" and went on to win the batting championship with his .353 performance. And Snider, who led the National League with 43 homers, could have bettered his lowly .292 average by not going for the fences. The answer is that home run hitters still ride in Cadillac.

The National Basketball Association, to preserve the tremendous gains made by the professional sport, should do something to provide better balance. Currently, the last place New York team of the Eastern Division has won more games than the first place Fort Wayne team of the Western Division.

THERE ARE 19 COLTS entered in this year's Kentucky Derby whose pappies won the run for the roses. Two of them, Exiled Ace and Manteau, are sons of Citation but neither is owned by Calumet Farm which sent the last triple crown winner to the races.

When Marquette track coach Bus Shimek and pole vaulter Ed Hoyle arrived in New York for the ICAA games, they couldn't get a cab because of the 16-foot pole they toled. A policeman finally got them a lift but it altered Shimek's outlook.

"From now on," he says, "I travel only with high jumpers."

Indians Take 2nd Spot, Hemet 3rd

As expected, Coachella Valley's Arabs swept the field in a three-cornered practice track meet with Palm Springs High and Hemet here Friday, winning in all three divisions.

They rolled up a total of 237 points in the Varsity, Bee and Cee meets.

The Indians finished in second spot with a total of 106 points and Hemet wound up with a total of 90.

PALM SPRINGS gave the Arabs a battle in the Varsity meet, losing by 12 points, 67 to 79. In the Bee and Cee meets, Coachella won with ease. The Indians were second in the Bee and third in the Cee.

Jackson of Palm Springs won the pole vault at 10' 4". Casey and Peterson finished one-two in the high hurdles; Prieto won the half in 2:08.7; Clark took the 220 in 23.8 for the Palm Springs firsts.

JERRY SENTEL won both sprints in the Bee division at 11.0 and 24.1. Crawford, in the Cee bracket, won both the high and broad jumps.

The way they finished:

Wall and Thompson Take Pensacola Lead

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., and Australia's Peter Thomson—two soft-voiced gentlemen of the golf links—were making the most noise today in the Pensacola Open Tournament.

Wall turned in a four-under-par 68 in Friday's second round while Thomson, a three-time winner of the British Open, carded his second straight 69 to tie for the lead with 138 totals.

IT'S TIME TO PLAY BALL TODAY FOR ALL MAJORS

By FRED DOWN

It's "Play Ball" in the Grapefruit League today with all hands hoping the weatherman also will decide to "play ball."

Byars Ready for Any Fight, Even Champ

NEW YORK —Walter Byars, the stubby Boston welterweight whose "basketball speed" achieved the year's biggest ring upset, said today, "I'll fight anybody who'll draw money, preferably the champion."

Mustachioed Walt, the ex-Marine who was a 6-1 underdog before he snapped the 12-straight winning streak of sensational Sugar Hart before 2,400 at Madison Square Garden Friday night, attributed the victory to his remarkable speed and turtle-shell attack. It left Walt unbeaten in 11 straight.

"I got my speed and elusiveness while playing basketball at Brandeis High School against taller fellows," explained Mr. Upset. "And I figured out the turtle-shell offense on my own because I was always boxin' taller fellows while learning in the Marines."

Byars, weighing 144½ pounds to Hart's 145½, won the unanimous decision in lopsided fashion on a rounds basis: 6-2-2, 7-3 and 8-0-2. The United Press had Walt ahead 6-4.

Poulson Sure Bums to Head To West Soon

LOS ANGELES —Mayor Norris Poulson today expressed hope that the Brooklyn Dodgers would transfer to Los Angeles in the wake of his meeting with the National League club's president.

Poulson and three other city and county officials returned here Friday from Florida where they discussed the possible transfer with Dodger President Walter O'Malley.

Poulson indicated that O'Malley would make a formal announcement in October concerning his future plans for the Dodgers.

Cotero, Bataan Meet For Feather Crown

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Larry Bataan, former Far East featherweight champion, and Jose Cotero, Southern California "Fighter of the Year" for 1956, square off tonight in a 12-rounder for the vacant California 126-pound crown at Hollywood Legion Stadium.

The State Athletic Commission recently ruled the California featherweight title vacant because Irish Timmy Bain failed to defend it within six months.

O'Donnell Invitational Under Way Monday

West's Best to Play Here Next Week

Scores of golfers, from zero handicappers to those with 24 will swarm over O'Donnell Golf course starting next Monday morning, seeking valuable prizes in the 22nd renewal of the Palm Springs Invitational tournament.

The tournament is divided into three classes, 0-24 handicappers Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Seniors, 50 to 75 and over Thursday the Championship Flight for three days starting Friday.

HARVIE WARD, the defending champion and two-time winner of the event, Dr. Frank M. Taylor, winner of the first tournament in 1936 and twice winner since, will head a field of select amateurs. J. E. "Dad" French, is chairman of the tournament committee. B. F. Shearer, president of the Club, has been instrumental in lining up the leading amateurs on the west coast and from eastern points for the tournament.

THE CLASS A EVENT which gets under way at 8 a.m. Monday morning, is divided into two brackets, players with 6 to 14 handicaps and those with 15 to 24 handicaps.

Four low gross and four low net prizes will be awarded in each division.

SENIORS PLAY Thursday, 18 holes of medal play, in five classes, 55 years to 59, 60 to 64, 65 to 69, 70 to 74 and 75 years and over. Two low gross and two low net prizes will be awarded in each class.

Prizes in both Class A and in the Senior event will be awarded at a dinner Thursday night at the Chi Chi.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT gets under way Friday morning for players with 0-5 handicaps. It will PCC has to offer.

But if they can't handle the pesky Trojans, the Bears will probably have to make room under the championship crown for both UCLA and Washington.
